Interests: outdoors, horses, camping, friendships, tramping, beach, family, current affairs
Musical Tastes: I like most music
Talents: engineering, good practical and people skills
Humour: I enjoy New Zealand and British comedy, have a good sense of humour and don't mind being made fun of Qualifications: Fitter and Turner, New Zealand Certificate of Engineering (Mechanical)
Disabilities: none
Sex: a special part of a loving and caring monogamous relationship, but it is only one part of many that makes for good companionship
Drugs: illegal drugs are definitely out, medical ones only as prescribed

Housework: housework has to be done as I like living in a clean and tidy environment
Politics: I keep in touch, but don't hold strong political views
Materialism: comfortable living conditions are important, but not a priority
Health: very good
Religion: I believe Christian principles are a good guide to success and happiness
Children: children are the spice of life, I get on really well with them
Hobbies: camping, hunting, horse riding, playing chess, reading

Short Term Goals: To take things as they come and continue to enjoy what I'm doing now. To meet a friendly lady for companionship.

Long Term Goals: To move to a lifestyle that will give me the time and opportunity to do the activities I like, and find a partner with whom to share my pursuits.

Description of Self: I am an honest, caring and thoughtful person who puts the important things first. I am family orientated and sensitive to other people's feelings and opinions. I am practical, easy going, get on well with people, and have a good sense of humour.

Background: I have always lived in a rural community, and now work on the land farming cattle and deer.
